HEBER BIOGRAPHIES

James was raised in Heber and attended the city schools. He helped with the farming and stock raising until 25 years of age, then took up the study of law under his brother-in-law, William Buys. He entered the University of Michigan in 1892, from which he graduated and received his degree. He practiced law in Heber City and was city and county attorney while in Heber. In 1901 he served a mission for the LDS Church in England. He moved to Provo and served two terms as district attorney of the Fourth Judicial District from 1912 to 1916. He also was Provo city attorney. He was a successful lawyer and a tireless worker. Ill health forced him to retire at an early age and was bedfast many years. He died at Provo, where he was buried. He was 91 years old. James and Evelyn were the parents of two sons and two daughters, Porter Hugh, Ward Cluff, Mrs. Grant (Edith) Thomas, and Mrs. Inez M. Oakley.
